

William G. Calloway, of Wheatville, Morris county, was born in Oglethorp county, Georgia, August 5, 1828; has been a farmer all his life, though he has pursued other occupations at different times; moved to Union Parish, Louisiana, in 1856, to, Arkansas in 1860, and subsequently to Titus (now Morris), connty; has been a member of the police jury in Louisiana, and common school commissioner in Columbia county, Arkasas; served three years during the war in Cabell's Brigade; elected as a Democrat by a majority of about 750 votes.